- asking questions to improve their understanding
- drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence
- predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
- summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, identifying key details that support the main ideas
- identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning
- discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader
- distinguish between statements of fact and opinion
- retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction
- participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously
- explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary
- provide reasoned justifications for their views.

Writing Objectives Composition:

Statutory Curriculum Objectives:

Pupils should be taught to:

- plan their writing by:
 - identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own
 - noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research where necessary
 - in writing narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings in what pupils have read, listened to or seen performed
- draft and write by:
 - selecting appropriate grammar and vocabulary, understanding how such choices can change and enhance meaning
 - in narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action
 - précising longer passages
 - using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs
 - using further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader [for example, headings, bullet points, underlining]
- evaluate and edit by:
 - assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing
 - proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning
 - ensuring the consistent and correct use of tense throughout a piece of writing
 - ensuring correct subject and verb agreement when using singular and plural, distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register
 - proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors

Target Tracker Statements:

- 1. Can produce well-structured and organised writing using a range of convention in layout
- 2. Can use appropriate informal and formal styles with confidence (e.g. conversational, colloquial, dialect, Standard English).
- 3. Can select the correct genre for audience and purpose and use it correctly.
- 4. Can select from a wide range of known imaginative and ambitious vocabulary (they should be words that are not usually used by a child of that age) and use them precisely. (All spelling, including that of complex words, is almost always correct).
- 5. Can use paragraphs consistently and appropriately.
- 6. Can group things appropriately before or after a main verb (e.g. 'The books, the pens and the pencils were all ready on the table').
- 7. Can use al grammar accurately except when consciously using dialect or colloquialism for purpose and audience.
- 8. Can use different techniques to open or conclude work appropriately (e.g. opinion, summary, justification, comment, suspense or prediction).
- 9. Can use complex sentence structure appropriately
- 10. Can use a wider range of punctuation, almost always accurately, to include three or more of the following: comma, apostrophe, bullets, inverted commas, hyphen, brackets, colon or semi-colon.
- 11. Can use punctuation appropriately to create effect (e.g. exclamation mark, dash, question mark, ellipsis).
- 12. Can write neatly, legibly and accurately in a flowing, joined style.
- 13. Can adapt handwriting for a range of tasks and purposes, including for effect.
- 14. Can spell accurately all but the mot complex words (e.g. paraphernalia, quintessential etc) and most or all of the high frequency words and the Y5 words in the NC appendix 1.
- 15. Can use the passive voice for variety and to shift focus (e.g. 'The cake was eaten by the child').

perform their own compositions, using appropriate intonation, volume, and movement so that meaning is clear.

- 16. Can use a range of narrative techniques with confidence, interweaving elements where appropriate (e.g. action, dialogue, quotation, formal or informal style, aside, observation, suspense).
- 17. Can vary sentence length and word order confidently to sustain interest (e.g. 'Having achieved your goals at such an early age, what motivates you to continue? Why fight on?)
- 18. Can use a range of devices to adapt writing to the needs of the reader (e.g. headings, sub-headings, bullets, underlining, parenthesis, introduction providing context, footnote, contents, bibliography).
- 19. Can use literary features to create effects (e.g. alliteration, onomatopoeia, figurative language, dialect, metaphor, simile etc).
- 20. Can interweave implicit and explicit links between the sections.
- 21. Can use punctuation to show division between clauses, to indicate, to vary pace, to create atmosphere or sub-divide (e.g. commas, colons, semicolons, dashes, ellipsis).
- 22. Can show confident and established 'voice'.

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation Year 5

Pupils should be taught to:

- develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by:
 - recognising vocabulary and structures that are appropriate for formal speech and writing, including subjunctive forms
 - using passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence
 - using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause
 - using expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely
 - using modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility
 - using relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that or with an implied (i.e. omitted) relative pronoun
 - learning the grammar for years 5 and 6 in English Appendix 2
- indicate grammatical and other features by:
 - using commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity in writing
 - using hyphens to avoid ambiguity
 - using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis
 - using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses
 - using a colon to introduce a list
 - punctuating bullet points consistently
 - use and understand the grammatical terminology in English Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately in discussing their writing and reading.

Spelling Year 5:

Pupils should be taught to:

- use further prefixes and suffixes and understand the guidance for adding them
- spell some words with 'silent' letters [for example, knight, psalm, solemn]
- continue to distinguish between homophones and other words which are often confused
- use knowledge of morphology and etymology in spelling and understand that the spelling of some words needs to be learnt specifically, as listed in English Appendix 1
- use dictionaries to check the spelling and meaning of words
- use the first three or four letters of a word to check spelling, meaning or both of these in a dictionary
- use a thesaurus.

NB the school chosen spelling pattern will cover all the statutory spelling objectives, including the statutory word lists. 30 weeks' worth of spelling lists are provided, allowing up to 9 additional weeks for topic based spelling, filling learning gaps or revision.

Handwriting

Handwriting and presentation

Pupils should be taught to:

- write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed by:
 - choosing which shape of a letter to use when given choices and deciding whether or not to join specific letters
 - choosing the writing implement that is best suited for a task.

Additional Guidance:

Please see the Jane Considine papers for text type progression.

When planning, please note that the statutory requirements are in black, additional guidance is in blue.
