

English

Activity One

Start/ continue to write a diary explaining your thoughts and feelings and write about activities you have been doing.

Don't forget to include:

- Writing in the past tense
- Writing in the first person using I
- Language to describe your thoughts and emotions
- Rhetorical questions

Activity Two

Find an old newspaper or magazine in your home - something not too precious.

Colour the verbs in pink, the nouns in yellow, adjectives in green and adverbs in blue.

e.g. The bored teacher sadly missed teaching the wonderful year 4 children at Northwick Park.

Activity Three

Narrative writing - Sci-fi stories

- Visit Literacy Shed online (link below) to explore a variety of sci-fi stories and videos.

Follow up activities could include:

- Sequencing a story - draw six pictures in the correct order to retell the story with written captions underneath. Remember full stops and capital letters.
- Choose a character and describe them - Draw and label your favourite character and write a paragraph describing what they are like and what they do in the story.

- Write an alternate ending for one of the stories - choose a story and think what would happen if the ending changed, rewrite the end of the story using creative language to excite your reader.
- Create a sci-fi setting - use ideas from the stories you have read or films you have watched to draw or make a setting.
- Write a sci-fi story of your own - don't forget to include:
A beginning, a middle and an end.
Descriptive language for your characters and setting.

Green Set

If you can, re-watch The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe, write your own story in a fantasy setting, starting with a game of hide and seek.
