

English

Activity One

Create a brochure advertising your theme park. How will you persuade your reader to visit your park?

Think about headings and sub-headings that will grab the reader's attention.

Make sure your brochure is informative as well as bright and colourful!

Activity Two

Imagine you have visited your theme park. Can you write a review to tell us all about the fantastic time you had?

Try to:

- Grab the reader's attention with an exciting opening sentence.
- Write in first person; from your own viewpoint, using the pronoun I
- Give details about key events from the day
- Use time connectives
- Use adjectives and adverbs to add detail
- Use a rounding off sentence to signal the ending of your review – would you recommend that we visit?

Challenge: can you upgrade the words fun, like and fast and use them in your review?

Activity Three

Will your Theme Park have a mascot? Can you design a mascot for your park – use interesting words to write a character description – if you have a thesaurus or can access one on-line can you upgrade some of your descriptive words?
